CAYAD CO-ORDINATOR

Ōpōtiki Bay of Plenty, Full Time

Community Action Youth & Drug Co-ordinator

Whakaatu Whanaunga Trust

Our CAYAD Services reflect our belief that all people deserve to live fully, have equal opportunities and achieve their ambitions. At Whakaatu Whanaunga Trust, we walk alongside whānau and rangatahi, creating safe, supportive environments where people can build confidence, develop new skills, strengthen connections and thrive within their hāpori. Our people are our greatest asset and we are committed to employing passionate, values-driven kaimahi who are dedicated to uplifting our community.

We are currently seeking an energetic, motivated, and compassionate individual to join our team in a Community Action Youth & Drug role.

About the role - He kōrero whakamārama mō tēnei tūranga

This role supports rangatahi and whānau affected by alcohol and other drug (AOD) challenges to lead fulfilling and meaningful lives. You will work in a strengths-based, whānau-centred way, enhance community awareness, reduce harm, build resilience and access the right supports to meet our hapori needs.

You will be part of a kaupapa-driven team that values manaakitanga, whanaungatanga and whakamana, and you will contribute to creating positive, long-term outcomes for our community.

What you will bring – Ngā tohungatanga mō tēnei tūranga:

- Support rangatahi and whānau impacted by alcohol and other drug use through practical, emotional, and kaupapa-based support
- Connect whānau with appropriate services, programmes, and community networks
- Participate in community-based activities, outreach, and organisational events
- Maintain accurate documentation and contribute to reporting and evaluation where required

Mēnā he tangata ngākaunui koe ki te whakapāho, ki te whiti i ngā reo o te hapori, tēnā pea, kei konei he tūranga mōu.

 If this sounds like the role for you, apply now!
